Why we charge a service fee

You have made the right decision by reaching out to me to help you plan one of the most important trips you will ever take. Designing a honeymoon, a destination wedding or a romantic getaway takes a lot of time to research and find the perfect fit that matches your lifestyle, personal tastes and budget.

You may not fully understand what a Romance Travel Expert does. Here's why my clients like working with me and come back again and again and what you can expect:

a) First, I protect your precious vacation dollars and hours. I've been there, seen the resorts, know the locations and I take time to get to know you as much as possible. So I do a great job at matching you with the right experience. I'd hate to see you wasting money on the wrong vacation, even if it is a great deal

b) Second, I save you a lot of time and hassle. There is so much information on the internet these days and it's hard to know what's accurate and what's not. Thanks to my expertise, I know the options far better than most and I am able to zero in on the best options very quickly. In addition, I'm the one that sits on hold, checks fares, prices, etc. that save you hours and hours of time

c) Third, I can get you special treatment you often times can't get on you own. Thanks to my relationships with travel suppliers, I can sometimes get amenities, upgrades and other special VIP touches that you don't have access to

d) Fourth, my job doesn't stop when you book your travel. I book extra special activities such as spa treatments, romantic dinner under the stars, tours, etc. I also prepare you for travel, so there are no surprises

e) Finally, I'm only a phone call or email away. If you experience unexpected surprises during your travel like a missed connection, you know you have just one phone call to make and I will take care of the rest

So as you can see, I am really committed to making this the best experience possible. I may not get you the cheapest deal – but since you are looking for a true partner with the expertise to do this job right and get you the best value, then I can't wait to get started working with you.

I realize that you have probably done some checking of prices and may continue to do so as I prepare your quotes. There are a LOT of "shiny, red objects" out there and it's easy to get sucked in.

If you find a better price, bring it to me, so I can take a look, tell you if it's the right resort for you, assess if it is a true apples-to-apples comparison, and if so, give me the opportunity to price match.

Sincerely,

Nicole Johns
